

daintree purifying 'earth mineral' body mask

item no.: 2577

what it is

A divine body treatment mask to reward your body. Infused with mandarin, sage and marjoram extracts, this enriching kaolin clay mask provides an effective treatment for skin prone to cellulite, impurities and toxin retention, leaving skin healthy and blissfully smooth.

what it does

- Helps to cleanse skin of impurities and toxins.
- Stimulates circulation to the skin's surface, leaving skin looking healthy and invigorated.
- Sage adds an astringent property to this body mask, tightening and toning pores and vein walls.
- Soothes and calms skin, helping to reduce inflammation and irritation.
- Skin will look and feel smooth.

main active ingredients

Kaolin Clay – possesses strong drawing properties, and as such helps to remove impurities and toxins from the skin without leaving your skin dry. It helps to stimulate circulation.

Mandarin – sourced from Queensland, mandarin acts as a concentrated vitamin boost for the skin. It contains antiseptic and toning properties and helps to purify and rebalance skin.

how to use

Apply liberally with fingertips all over the body, avoiding delicate areas such as the nipples. Allow to dry for 10-12 minutes and rinse off with a warm moist sponge or towel.

when to use

Apply once or twice a week.
